VERMILION SKIES

Wendela Lumley

A love story that will stay with you forever.

Set in Chile, Vermilion Skies follows the life of Milana, an intelligent fourteen year old shantytown girl, who struggles with the legacy of an abusive step father, the daily taunts of threatening drug pedlars who lust after her, and a restless imagination fed by books she finds in charity bags. When tragedy tears through the flimsy fabric of her life it is Santiago, a stranger she finds working by the river who will offer her an unusual means of escape.

Eligible and aristocratic, the eighteen year old Santiago is an artist on the brink of fame who is trapped in a nightmare of his own. He finds release in the clandestine relationship that develops between him and Milana. While their love will eventually drive them across continents, shattering all the barriers of convention, Milana and Santiago discover themselves to be the innocent victims of an appalling crime and a secret that threatens to devastate their lives.

A compelling and passionate love story that captures the magic and spirituality of an extraordinary country, Vermilion Skies will appeal to anyone who seeks to be moved. It is a story that explores the nature of love. Vermilion Skies will be enjoyed by fans of romance, of any age.

WENDELA LUMLEY, the daughter of a Chilean artist and a Canadian concert pianist, was born in London, where she studied Law and then a postgraduate degree in The Fine and Decorative Arts. She has travelled extensively and, after meeting her husband, they lived for many years in Chile with their five children. In 2004, they returned to England and settled near Newbury in Berkshire.
